THE PALESTINE LIBERATION
ORGANIZATION, et al.,

Defendants.

Civil Action No. 04cv397 (GBD) (RLE)

DEFENDANTS' OBJECTIONS AND ANSWERS TO PLAINTIFFS' PERSONAL JURISDICTION INTERROGATORIES

Defendant Palestinian Authority ("PA") and Defendant Palestine Liberation Organization ("PLO") (collectively, "Defendants"), by counsel, and pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 33, state their objections to and, where applicable, answer the Personal Jurisdiction Interrogatories from plaintiffs Mark I. Sokolow, et al. (collectively, "Plaintiffs"), as follows:

GENERAL OBJECTIONS TO EACH OF THE INTERROGATORIES

1. Defendants object to the Interrogatories to the extent the definitions or instructions set forth therein seek to impose requirements for production beyond those contained in the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Local Rules of this Court.

2. Defendants object to the Interrogatories to the extent they seek information protected from disclosure by the attorney-client privilege, the work-product doctrine, the joint defense privilege, the common interest doctrine or any other applicable statutory or common law privilege. With respect to those Interrogatories to which Defendants do not specifically object and which seek the identification or disclosure of privileged information or documents,

Defendants will identify such information and documents in the manner and to the extent required under Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(5) and the Local Rules of this Court.

3. Defendants object to the Interrogatories to the extent they seek information and documents which are not relevant to the personal jurisdiction issue in this action and they are not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence related to the personal jurisdiction issue.

4. Defendants object to the Interrogatories to the extent that they are overly broad, oppressive, unduly burdensome and/or would involve undue financial expense to Defendants. In addition, Defendants object to each interrogatory that seeks "all" or "every" piece of information or "all" or "every" document when the relevant information may be supplied with fewer than "all" or "every" piece of information or "all" or "every" document.

5. Defendants object to the Interrogatories to the extent the information and documents requested are equally accessible and available to Plaintiffs from other sources (including as a matter of public record) and the production of such information by Defendants would entail unreasonable burden and expense to Defendants.

6. Defendants object to the Interrogatories to the extent they seek the identification or disclosure of information or documents that are not within Defendants' possession, custody, or control. In this regard, Defendants specifically object to General Definition No. 4.

7. Defendants object to the manner specified for answering the Interrogatories as being unduly burdensome and unreasonable. Defendants reserve their right to answer the Interrogatories according to the requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Local Rules of this Court. In this regard, Defendants specifically object to General Definition Nos. 9 through 12.

8. Defendants object to the Interrogatories to the extent that they are vague or ambiguous or fail to describe the information or documents sought with sufficient particularity to allow for a meaningful response by Defendants.

9. Defendants reserve their right to object to or challenge the competency, relevance, materiality, authenticity, or admissibility of any information or documents disclosed or produced in response to the Interrogatories at any stage, proceeding, trial or appeal in this case.

10. Defendants object to the definition of the terms, "assets," "PA assets" and "PLO assets" in Specific Definition Nos. 4-6 as vague and ambiguous, overly broad and requiring a legal conclusion, including, as potentially construed, the phrases "legal rights or interests" and "equitable rights and interests."

11. In accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(e), and as the Plaintiffs' request in Instruction No. 9, Defendants will amend or supplement their answers to these Interrogatories if Defendants acquire additional or contrary information.

12. Some of the information contained herein is confidential information that may not have been publicly disclosed. Defendants reserve the right to seek the entry of a protective order restricting the use or disclosure of such information in this litigation.

INTRODUCTION

1. Any answers contained herein are based on certain non-privileged information presently available to Defendants or their counsel, as well as non-privileged information that is publicly available, including pleadings and motions in this case. The answers may not necessarily reflect information that is currently within the possession, custody or control of other persons or entities, including former employees of Defendants. The investigation and/or discovery of this action remains ongoing, and Defendants reserve the right to amend or supplement its responses in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Local Rules of this Court.

2. The exact wording of any answers contained herein may be that of Defendants' counsel and does not necessarily purport to be that of Defendants.

3. Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 33(d), non-privileged documents relating to the topics set forth in the Interrogatories might be produced in response to the Interrogatories or Plaintiffs' Request for Production of Documents.

4. To the extent any of the Interrogatories seek the disclosure of information or documents protected from disclosure by any applicable privilege (including, but not limited to, the attorney-client privilege, the work product doctrine or the joint defense privilege), Defendants object to such Interrogatories and will identify the information or documents in the manner and to the extent required by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Local Rules of this Court.

6. To the extent that the Plaintiffs have failed to specify their claims at all or to the degree necessary to determine a proper scope of interrogatory and to identify information responsive thereto, Defendants reserve the right to modify, amend or supplement its answers to these Interrogatories accordingly.

7. To the extent that certain of the Interrogatories would require answers containing opinions or contentions that relate to fact or the application of law to fact, Defendants reserve their right, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(e) and 33(c), to respond to those Interrogatories after (or later in) the discovery period.

8. Interrogatories seeking information regarding the PLO Mission to the United States (the "D.C. Office") and regarding the Permanent Observer Mission of Palestine to the United Nations (“the New York Office”) are treated as directed only to Defendant PLO, as these offices are offices of the PLO, not the Palestinian Authority.

SPECIFIC OBJECTIONS AND ANSWERS

Interrogatory No. 1: Provide the full names of all employees in the D.C. Office during the Relevant Period.

Objections:

Defendant PA and Defendant PLO incorporate herein by reference the foregoing General Objections. In addition, Defendants object to the Interrogatory to the extent it fails to recognize the PA’s and PLO’s status as separate juridical entities and as separate Defendants whose jurisdictional contacts with the United States must be analyzed separately. Defendants further object to the Interrogatory on the grounds that it uses the undefined and vague term “employees.” Defendants also object to the Interrogatory to the extent it assumes that an individual employed at the D.C. Office during the Relevant Period was employed throughout the entire Relevant Period, rather than employed only for some portion of the Relevant Period.

Answer:

Subject to and without waiving the foregoing General and Specific Objections, Defendant PLO states as follows:

The following individuals were employed by the PLO to work at the PLO Mission to the United States (the D.C. Office) for all of, or a portion of, the Relevant Period:

Hasan Abdel Rahman
Kamal Abu Hijleh
Shahzad Ahmed
Isseine Ali
Ummer Vaddakot
Khalil Footah
Said Hamad
Amiene Kesheshian (Armine Salisbury)
Malea Kiblan (Malea Rahman)

El Pidio Orinion
Hakem Takesh
Jubran Taweel

Though not an employee of the PA or PLO, Hassan Hamdan regularly received payment for providing accounting services to the PLO Mission to the United States.

Subject to and without waiving the foregoing General and Specific Objections, Defendant PA states as follows:

The following individuals were employed by the PA to work at the PLO Mission to the United States (the D.C. Office) for all of, or a portion of, the Relevant Period:

Laila Tarazi
Ghaleb Darabiah (or, "Darabya")

Interrogatory No. 2: Provide the full names of all employees in the New York Office during the Relevant Period.

Objections:

Defendant PA and Defendant PLO incorporate herein by reference the foregoing General Objections. In addition, Defendants object to the Interrogatory to the extent it fails to recognize the PA's and PLO's status as separate juridical entities and as separate Defendants whose jurisdictional contacts with the United States must be analyzed separately. Defendants further object to the Interrogatory on the grounds that it uses the undefined and vague term "employees." Defendants also object to the Interrogatory to the extent it assumes that an individual employed at the New York Office during the Relevant Period was employed throughout the entire Relevant Period, rather than employed only for some portion of the Relevant Period.

Answer:

Subject to and without waiving the foregoing General and Specific Objections, Defendant PLO states as follows:

The following individuals were employed by the PLO to work at the Permanent Observer Mission of Palestine to the United Nations (the New York Office) for all of, or a portion of, the Relevant Period:

Tirok Dolat Retsima
Theodolpho Agnacio
Christina Gobala
Nadia Rashid
Rachida Majouate
Oiselley Adelope

Subject to and without waiving the foregoing General and Specific Objections, Defendant PA states as follows:

The following individual was employed by the PA to work at the Permanent Observer Mission of Palestine to the United Nations (the New York Office) for all of, or a portion of, the Relevant Period:

Marwan Jilani

Interrogatory No. 3: Identify and describe the position, job description, title, authority, activities and responsibilities, of each person included in your responses to Interrogatories Nos. 1 and 2.

Objections:

Defendant PA and Defendant PLO incorporate herein by reference the foregoing General Objections, including, without limitation, General Objection Nos. 3, 4, 7, and 8. Specifically, and without limitation, Defendant PA and Defendant PLO object to requests for the “authority” of each person included in responses to Interrogatories Nos. 1 and 2, as this term is vague as used in this context and Defendants PA and PLO cannot ascertain what information Plaintiffs are seeking. Defendants also object to the request to “[i]dentify and describe the . . . activities and responsibilities of each person” This request is vague and unduly burdensome in light of the limited nature of the personal jurisdiction discovery authorized by the Court. Defendants further object to providing job descriptions and descriptions of “activities,” as the nature of the individual’s job is evident from the job title.

Defendants also object to the Interrogatory to the extent it fails to recognize the PA’s and PLO’s status as separate juridical entities and as separate Defendants whose jurisdictional contacts with the United States must be analyzed separately. Defendants also object to the Interrogatory to the extent it assumes that an individual employed at the D.C. Office or New York Office during the Relevant Period was employed throughout the entire Relevant Period, rather than employed only for some portion of the Relevant Period.

Interrogatory No. 4: List and describe every news interview, press conference, and public lecture, debate and/or panel discussion, in which employees of the D.C. Office and the New York Office participated during the Relevant Period, including the date, location and host (i.e. the person or entity that sponsored or hosted the event or conducted the interview) of each such event.

Objections:

Defendant PA and Defendant PLO incorporate herein by reference the foregoing General Objections, including, without limitation, General Objection Nos. 3-9. Defendants further object to the Interrogatory on the grounds that it uses the undefined and vague term "employees." In addition, Defendants object to the Interrogatory to the extent it fails to recognize the PA's and PLO's status as separate juridical entities and as separate Defendants whose jurisdictional contacts with the United States must be analyzed separately.

Answer:

Subject to and without waiving the foregoing General and Specific Objections, Defendant PLO states as follows:

Neither the D.C. Office nor the New York Office of the PLO maintains records of "every news interview, press conference, and public lecture, debate and/or panel discussion, in which employees of the D.C. Office and the New York Office participated during the Relevant Period." Pursuant to its obligations under the Foreign Agents Registration Act, every six months, beginning in September 1998 and throughout the remainder of the Relevant Period, the PLO submitted to the U.S. Department of Justice a Supplemental Statement Pursuant to Section 2 of the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938 ("FARA"), as amended, (hereinafter "Supplemental Statement"). This semi-annual Supplemental Statement includes a schedule listing the public appearances, lectures, interviews, and other activities in with the PLO Mission to the United States participated during the preceding six month period. Copies of those statements covering the April 1, 1998, through January 16, 2004 period are provided in response to Document Request No. 5. Accordingly, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 33(d), information responsive to this Interrogatory may be derived or ascertained from the documents Defendants have produced in response to Plaintiffs' written discovery requests. The Supplemental Statements also are publicly available. The Department of Justice provides Internet access to the FARA Supplemental Statements through its website www.usdoj.gov/criminal/fara. Additional responsive documents also have been provided in response to Document Request No. 5.

As noted, the Permanent Observer Mission of Palestine to the United Nations (the New York Office), does not maintain records of "every news interview, press conference, and public lecture, debate and/or panel discussion, in which employees of the D.C. Office and the New York Office participated during the Relevant Period." Additionally, most of such activities would have been conducted by the former ambassador to the Permanent Observer Mission of Palestine to the United Nations, Nasser Al-Kidwa, who no longer is employed at the New York Office and who does not currently possess any calendar, schedule or diary that lists such events in which he participated during the Relevant Period.. Based on publicly-available information, Nasser Al-Kidwa participated in such activities during the Relevant Period, including, but not necessarily limited to, the following appearances:

Interrogatory No. 7: List and describe in full all PA Assets in the United States during the Relevant Period.

Objections:

Defendant PA incorporates herein by reference the foregoing General Objections, including, but without limitation General Objection Nos. 6, 7, 8 and 10.

Answer:

Subject to and without waiving the foregoing General and Specific Objections, Defendant PA states as follows:

In enforcement actions arising from other cases brought against the PA and PLO in the United States, such as Estate of Aharon Ellis v. Swiss American Securities, Inc., No. 07-03952

(SDNY) (VM), Plaintiffs' counsel is arguing that a sub-custodial account of the Palestinian Pension Fund for the State Administrative Employees in the Gaza Strip ("Palestinian Pension Fund") held by Swiss American Securities, Inc., ("SASI") in New York should be treated as a PA asset for purposes of enforcing a judgment against the PA. Similarly, Plaintiffs' counsel is arguing in such cases, principally, Strachman v. Palestinian Authority, No. 3:05-mc-00208 (D. Conn.) (PCD), that the Palestine Investment Fund's interests in Canaan II Equity Offshore CV and Canaan III Equity Offshore CV (which at one time were owned indirectly by the PA) should be treated as a PA asset for purposes of enforcing a judgment against the PA. Counsel for the Palestinian Pension Fund and Palestine Investment Fund are contesting claims that these assets can be treated as PA assets, and the courts have yet to decide the issue.

During the period February 16, 1998, to December 31, 2002, the PA owned a Palestinian-based entity called the Palestine Commercial Services Company ("PCSC"), which, in turn, at certain times during that period owned or held interests in various entities or funds the assets of which included investments located in or managed from the United States. Those investments of PCSC in U.S.-related entities or funds at certain times during that period included investments in: (1) Chalcedony, LLC; (2) Evergreen Partners U.S. Direct Fund III, L.P.; (3) SilverHaze Partners, LLP; (4) The Onyx Fund LLC; and (5) Darnel Limited. Pursuant to a decree of the President of the Palestinian Authority on October 1, 2000, PCSC, including its ownership of interests in the U.S.-related entities or funds referenced above and, in turn, their U.S.-related assets, was transferred to PIF, which commenced operations on January 1, 2003. The value of the investments listed above varied during the period February 16, 1998, to December 31, 2002. As of December 31, 2003, following the transfer of PCSC and its assets to PIF, the Standard & Poor's estimated values of PCSC's total investments in the U.S.-related entities or funds referenced above were reported by PIF as follows: (1) Chalcedony, LLC ($4,000,000); (2) Evergreen Partners U.S. Direct Fund III, L.P. ($2,300,000); (3) SilverHaze Partners, LLP ($260,000); (4) The Onyx Fund LLC ($920,000); (5) Darnel Limited ($6,600,000); (6) Canaan II Equity Offshore CV ($1,100,000); and (6) Canaan III Equity Offshore CV ($3,600,000). It is uncertain at this time what the actual values were during the period February 16, 1998, to December 31, 2002, for the U.S.-based assets held by the U.S.-related entities or funds referenced above. At this time, the PA is not aware of any bank accounts or other assets located in the United States during the period February 16, 1998, to January 16, 2004, that were titled in the name of the PA.

Interrogatory No. 8: List and describe in full all PLO Assets in the United States during the Relevant Period.

Objections:

Defendant PLO incorporates herein by reference the foregoing General Objections, including, but without limitation General Objection Nos. 6, 7, 8 and 10.

Answer:

Subject to and without waiving the foregoing General and Specific Objections, Defendant PLO states as follows:

A. During the Relevant Period, the PLO owned the office and residence used by the Permanent Observer Mission of Palestine to the United Nations. The office/residence is located at 115 East 65th Street, New York, New York 10021-7006. In August 12, 1998, the property was appraised and was estimated to have a market value of $1,100,000.00, of which sum $300,000 was allocated to the value of the land. The appraisal has been produced in response to Document Request No. 3. As of January 15, 2005, the City of New York Department of Finance listed the market value for tax year 7/1/04 through 6/30/05 as $4,690,000. This Notice of Property Value also has been produced in response to Document Request No. 3.

B. During the Relevant Period, the Permanent Observer Mission to the United Nations had a checking account at Chase Manhattan Bank, Account No. 015-005844. The monthly ending balance in the account varied over the Relevant Period, from a high of $143,499.36 to a low of $837.59. Account statements for the relevant period are being provided in response to Document Request No. 3.

C. During the Relevant Period, The PLO Mission to the United States had checking accounts at Riggs Bank, First Union Bank (later, Wachovia Bank), and may have had an account at Bank of America. Plaintiffs have subpoenaed all PA/PLO bank records from these banks. The PLO Mission to the United States does not have bank account records for the 1998-2001 period. Bank account statements for the 2002 through January 2004 time period are among the documents produced in response to Document Request No. 1.

D. At least as of January 29, 2003, it appears there may have been a CD at Riggs Bank controlled by the PLO Mission to the United States or Hasan Abdel Rahman but the PLO is continuing to investigate.

E. At this time, the PLO is not aware of any assets in the United States that the PLO owned during the Relevant Period other than the assets described in paragraphs A-D, above.

Interrogatory No. 9: List all telephone numbers (including fax lines and mobile or cellular phone numbers) in the United States, whether or not listed under the name of the PA or PLO, which were owned, subscribed to and/or paid for by the PA and PLO during the Relevant Period.

Objections:

Defendants PA and PLO incorporate herein by reference the foregoing General Objections, including, and without limitation General Objections 3, 4, 6, 7, and 8.

Answer:

Subject to and without waiving the foregoing General and Specific Objections, Defendant PLO states as follows:

The PLO Mission to the United States does not have telephone records for the 1998-2001 time period. Throughout the Relevant Period, the D.C. Office had a variety of telephone lines. In addition, the D.C. Office reimbursed certain employees for their cell phone usage and reimbursed Hasan Abdel Rahman for the telephone lines at his residence. The telephone and cell phone numbers for which the PLO Mission to the United States paid or provided reimbursement during the January 2002 through January 2004 period are listed below.
